Session Convenes –

As the week comes to an end, bills continued having hearings on the Chamber floors and we also see the Governor taking action on bills. The appropriations and budget subcommittees have been having hearings on what budgets look like for the remaining fiscal year, the upcoming fiscal year, and also what the result of further budget cuts would be to their agencies.

The Legislature was not the only one taking action at the Capitol this week. The Tea Party had a rally on Thursday, with an outpouring of people present to protest. Thursday was also national tax day.
